WHAT TO DO

Shop to your heart's content at myriad high-end boutiques—including independently owned Nuages (think brands like Chrome Hearts) and MAX (Prada and Versace)—plus Performance Ski, for stylish slope attire.

WHERE TO GO OUT

Start the night off at Matsuhisa Aspen, one of the best locales for the fashion-forward set. Take a seat at the downstairs bar; order a White Rabbit cocktail (a local fave); and get in with the Hollywood-

WHERE TO DINE

If you can't afford to stay at Aspen's five-star hotel, then experience The Little Nell through its new restaurant, element 47. Brimming with style thanks to award-winning New York-based architectural firm Bentel & Bentel—it features a locally sourced, globally inspired menu. 675 E. Durant Ave., element47aspen.com. @thelittlenell

THE FASHIONIST

WHERE TO STAY

Hotel Lenado is one of Aspen's best-kept secrets—the fashion-forward and artsy types flock to the exclusive, 19-room boutique hotel. It could be because of the rooftop hot tub, the 28-foot stone fireplace in the lobby or the quietly chic Markham's Bar. Rooms from $325, 200 S. Aspen

THE CULTURE VULTURE

WHERE TO DINE

Not only does Ellina Restaurant + Bar offer superb food, it also serves as a social hub of Aspen—attracting the hip, young, in-the-know crowd. 430 E. Hyman Ave., ellinaaspen.com, @ellinaaspen

WHERE TO STAY

Hotel Jerome's recent renovation brings this historic hotel (one of Aspen's first grand hotels!) up-to-date—guest rooms feature custom furnishings, indulgent bathrooms and artwork by local artists. Visitors and locals alike flock to the remodeled Living Room bar for cocktails and conversation. Rooms from $800, 330 E. Main St., hoteljerome.com, @hoteljerome

WHERE TO GO OUT

After hitting the slopes, head to JAS Café at The Little Nell. The place is buzzin' on Friday and Saturday nights, with stellar jazz music taking the stage at 7 and 9PM. Upcoming shows include Curtis on Feb. 15–16, and Monty Alexander: Harlem Kingston Express 28–March 2. 675 E. Durant Ave., jazzaspensnowmass.org, @jas

WHAT TO DO

Head to Peach's Corner Café, where you'll find both locals and visitors surfing on their iPads—it's the perfect perch to people-watch and catch a world-class performance at the historic Wheeler House. 121 S. Galena St., peachscornercafe.com, @peachscornercafe, 685 E. Hyman Ave., wheeleroperahouse.com, @wheeleropera

THE PARTY-ALL-THE-TIMER

WHERE TO DINE

Grab a spot at the bar; order a cocktail and start a convo with the hottie sitting next to you at modern-American bistro Cache Cache, which boasts a rich menu of classic French cuisine. 205 S. Mill St., cachecache.com

WHERE TO STAY

Sky Hotel sports an unpretentious atmosphere, plus a retro vibe that attracts young locals and visitors alike. Annual party lineups are stellar—the end-of-season bash is not to be missed. 39 Degrees Lounge, located inside the hotel, is an après-ski hot spot. Rooms from $484, 709 E. Durant Ave., theskyhotel.com, @skyhotelaspen

WHERE TO GO OUT

Kick off the night at Aspen Brewing Company's upstairs resto for a fun, 20-something scene; then, follow up with drinks, dancing and music at Belly Up Aspen, before ending things on a high note at Escobar Aspen (renowned as the town's sexiest late-night spot). 304 E. Hopkins Ave., aspenbrewingcompany.com, @aspenbrewingco; 450 S. Galena St., bellyupaspen.com, @bellyupaspen; 426 E. Hyman

WHAT TO DO

Ajax Tavern, at the base of Aspen Mountain, is the happenin' spot during the winter season. Flirt with the best-looking bartenders during daily happy hour, from 3 to 6PM (and an insider tip: The true can't be beat). 685 E. Durant Ave., ajaxtavernaspen.com, @ajaxta
